The Program
Fairway UWA is an alternative pathway to UWA. The program aims to support Year 12 students from disadvantaged backgrounds and seeks to build upon the attributes and abilities of these students, improve their academic skills and assist in developing their true potential.

Why would you want to be a Fairway Ambassador?
- Receive training that will develop your skills and knowledge;
- Access opportunities to develop your leadership skills;
- Make a valuable contribution to improving educational outcomes for students who might not otherwise consider studying at UWA.

What skills and qualities are we looking for?
- Positive social skills;
- Good communication skills;
- Effective time management;
- Problem solving skills;
- Passionate and enthusiastic.

What does the role entail?
Fairway Ambassadors contribute to the program in a variety of ways. We would expect you to:
- Attend and participate in training sessions organised by Fairway UWA;
- Attend and participate in Fairway UWA activities, if you are available;
- Provide consistent support and encouragement to high school students to have confidence in their abilities;
- Be informed and provide accurate information about UWA;
- Act as a positive role model;
- Respond to emails and communicate regularly.
