

Consumer and Community Participation Fact Sheets 01: Fact Sheet Overview

This series of Fact Sheets have been developed in response to requests from researchers for short, simple resources/tools to support the implementation of consumer and community participation in health research.

The content of the Fact Sheets are based on information and experience gained from the Consumer and Community Participation Program at The University of Western Australia's School of Population Health and the Telethon Institute for Child Health Research. We acknowledge the significant contribution of Bec Hanley from TwoCan Associates (UK) to our Participation Program.

Thank you

We would like to thank everyone who contributed to the development of the Fact Sheets and in particular to Hayley Haines for making the idea a reality.

The Fact Sheet series covers a range of topics as listed below:

01. Fact Sheet Overview
P01. Why Involve Consumer and Community Members in Research? P02. Principles of Consumer and Community Participation P03. For Consumer and Community Members P04. Identifying Appropriate Consumer and Community Members P05. Meeting with Consumer and Community Members	Principles
M01. Planning Participation M02. Reference Groups M03. Steering Groups M04. Consumer and Community Advisory Councils M05. Consumer and Community Consultation Forums M06. Consumer and Community Researchers M07. Research Buddies M08. Writing or Commenting on Documents M09. Grant Application Reviewers M10. Writing Grant Applications M11. Plain Language Summaries M12. Evaluation	Methods and support for Participation
T01. Stakeholder Wheel T02. The Research Cycle T03. Ladder of Participation T04. Further Sources of Information	Tools and Resources

The Fact Sheets are supported by:

McKenzie and Hanley, (2007) Consumer and Community Participation in Health and Medical Research: A practical guide for health and medical research organisations.

These Fact Sheets are available for educational purposes. No alteration or adaptation of these materials may be made without obtaining the permission of Anne McKenzie. Email Anne.McKenzie@uwa.edu.au