Preparing your UWay Application

In order for the University to gain a fuller picture of the circumstances that impacted on the preparation and performance of your exams, please respond to each broad circumstance that relates to your situation.

You must answer all questions for each circumstance under which you are applying, making clear the effect of the circumstance/s on your studies. The questions in the forms are designed to assist you describe the full extent of your disadvantage.

Ensure you complete additional versions of pages 2 and 3, for each circumstance you apply under. The circumstances you are encouraged to consider applying under are listed on the UWay website. If none of these options relate to you, please tell us your story under ‘Other’.

Supporting documentary evidence

You are required to provide appropriate documentary evidence to support the claim for each circumstance you apply under. Acceptable evidence includes:

- A statement from your School Principal (or an approved delegate) that addresses the disadvantage you are claiming. Refer to the separate form provided as part of the application pack.
- Additional medical documents or certificates, reports from other health professionals, including registered counsellors and psychologists. Refer to the separate form provided as part of the application pack.
- Police reports
- Legal documents including death certificates
- Statements from an unbiased and independent source; employers, Centrelink, pastor or community leader

For the purposes of a UWay application, some types of supporting documents cannot be considered. Examples of these include:

- Character references that do not address the disadvantage you are claiming
