The ARC Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions presents:

Emotions and Historical Change in Pre-Modern Europe

Date: 14 December 2011
Time: 09:00 - 17:00
Venue: Theatrette 1, Ground Floor, Arts West, Building 148, University of Melbourne, Parkville (next to the Baillieu Library)
Contact: jessica.scott@unimelb.edu.au
ph: +61 3 8344 5152

TIME

| 9.00–9.15 | [Charles Zika (University of Melbourne)] Welcome & Introduction |
Di Hall (Victoria University) Gastley strang and formidable expression by spiritts*: Emotions and encounters with the supernatural in 17th century Ireland
Peter Sherlock (United Faculty of Theology) Is memory an emotion? Visiting monuments in early modern England |
| 10.45–11.10 | MORNING BREAK |
| 11.10–1.10 | Peter Howard (Monash University) Emotions & Preaching in Renaissance Florence
Sarah Randles (University of Melbourne) Place, Space and the Material in the Emotional Response to Medieval Chartres
Sarah Ferber (University of Wollongong) Worlds behind the world: the politics of the imagination in early modern witchcraft, demonic possession and spirituality
Sue Broomhall (University of Western Australia) Curating premodern emotions in modern spaces: a focus on religious objects |
| 1.10–2.05 | LUNCH |
| 2.05–3.35 | Tomas Zahora (Monash University) Three centuries of fear: St. Anselm, Alexander Neckam, and the author of the Speculum morale on the cultivation of a fearful emotional state
Claire Walker (University of Adelaide) The Papists plot of firing discovered*: Fear of Catholics in Restoration London
Heather Dalton (University of Melbourne) Wonder, fear, fury, love and loyalty in the 16th century Atlantic |
| 3.35–4.00 | AFTERNOON BREAK |
| 4.00–5.00 | Katie Barday (University of Adelaide) Intimacy and the Lower-Class Family in the Long Eighteenth Century: Oral Cultures and Spatial Dramas
David Lemmings (University of Adelaide) Governing Emotions: the Affective Family, the Press and Reforming the Law in Eighteenth-century Britain |
| 5.30–6.15 | RECEPTION |
| 6.15–7.30 | PUBLIC LECTURE: Lyndal Roper (University of Oxford) The Emotional Dynamics of the Reformation |

www.emotions.uwa.edu.au

Australian Research Council Centre of Excellence for the History of Emotions

Europe 1000 - 1800

Emotions make history